DOON'S STORY:

Doon, who's real name is Dustin Thomas, is from New Orleans, more specifically the city's downtown, 7th ward, Gentilly area. His Mother along with his Grand Mother raised him alone with his two older sisters. Music always played a huge part in the rapper's life. He started rapping and recording himself at the age of 13. One of his early and frequent collaborators was R&B sensation, Frank Ocean. Being from New Orleans his early influences were rap legends Juvenile, B.G., & Mac along with the greats like Biggie, 2PAC and Jay-Z.

21 Gramz Entertainment released Doon's first single titled "3:15" for The Wax Museum album (2016), and debuted on WQUE 93.3 FM on Wild Wayne's 504 radio. Since then it has played on Power102.9 in Jay Skillz Friday mixshow and OG Ron C's Chopstars Show for Houston's 93.7fm.

2017 has been a promising year for Doon. After being nominated and losing "Breakthrough Artist of the Year" to the late-BTY-Youngn at the New Orleans Music Awards, Doon dropped "How'd This Wall Get Here" & "Shot Callerz" simultaneously. They both recieved play from Power 102.9's DJ G-Cue all summer with the latter being produced by platinum beatmaker, BL$$D.(Young Thug x Future 'Relationships', Ayo x Teo 'Rolex') Doon and BL$$D have been working on a full-length project and plan release more music very soon. Platinum recording artist, Future featured Doon on the now leak "3 Zips" which ended up on heavy rotation on Music Choice. Doon also returned to another sold out Lundi Fest for a 2nd year with his hometown idols, Juvenile & Mystikal. He then shared the stage with XXL Freshmen Designer ('15) and Kap G ('16) this year. Doon himself has been highlighted in XXL's #HeGotNext instagram campaign.
